Part 1: You will be asked some general questions about your city or town, your studies or work, family, etc.

Part 2: You will be given a photo and asked to describe it, for example:

Then you will be asked some questions related to the photo, for example:

What is life like for this family? What did they do immediately after this photo was taken? What do you think they'll do this summer?

Part 3: After this, you will be asked some questions about the topic of the photos, for example:

Describe a member of your family. What's he/she like? Do you have any brothers or sisters? How often do you see your family? What do you usually do when you meet? Who do you get on with best in your family? Why?
